Set aside the demands of daily life. Be here with us.

I know how difficult it can be to extract oneself from the grind of everyday life. That's one reason brilliant music is so important: it reminds us of the potential of the human spirit, and restores us to who we really are.

Music brings us back to life.

This season, our program spans the gamut of masterworks from Mendelssohn to Mozart, from Brahms to Beethoven, to Tchaikovsky and Rachmaninoff and Bach again. We're bringing you American classics from Aaron Copland and George Gershwin, vivid and vibrant concertos, and passionate masterpieces from the exotic to the most beloved salute to the human spirit with Beethoven's 9th Symphony. In short, we're bringing you a season guaranteed to bring you to your feet.

When you pair our world-class Pasadena Symphony with the acoustically incomparable Ambassador Auditorium, what results are six musical events that stir your soul to feeling fully alive.

All we need now is you.

Please join us for this extraordinary season.
Be. Hear. Now.

David Lockington
Music Director
